Calls made for leader to quit over car fiasco

BY TOBY LOCK

tobylock@nbnorthants.co.uk

'THE leader of Northampton Borough Council should now go' after he was forced to apologise to councillors for leaving his car for three months in the council car park.

Cllr David Palethorpe, leader of the Conservatives, has launched a stinging attack on Cllr Tony Woods following an investigation into the matter.

On Tuesday, Cllr Woods was found guilty of two breaches of a code of conduct after he left his Vauxhall Astra in the Guildhall car park last September.

The car remained parked for around three months, with its tax disc expired, despite calls for the leader to move it. While Cllr Woods was forced to make an apology to all of his fellow councillors, or face a one-month suspension, Cllr Palethorpe believes enough is enough.

He said: "I think this has gone on long enough. There are an awful lot of problems among Lib Dems and nothing seems to be improving.

"Tony should now go. I have been talking about this for some time now, and it is in the best interest of the town of Northampton and for the council that he stands down.

"The Lib Dems have got to get their house in order, because that is what the people pay their council taxes for."

Commenting after the meeting of Northampton Borough Council's Standards Board, Cllr Woods said: "I have said 'sorry' publicly and privately for leaving my car in my space for a period of three months. It was a time of considerable pressure, balancing the council's books in the teeth of the recession and I let my personal affairs slip.

"I accept the committee's decision and will apologise as requested.

"I am sorry that the issue has diverted attention from all the good things happening in Northampton.

"I would like to thank Labour and

Cllr Tony Woods

Conservative councillors for their support, for putting public duty before political gain and for letting due process take its course. Liberal Democrat councillors and I will continue to put the best interests of the town first."

Councillors will meet on Friday where the future of the leader will be discussed.

Independent councillor Tony Clarke said: "His attitude throughout has been appalling. In regards to the situation with his car, it is not the way someone in his position should be behaving. He has been arrogant and dismissive of any criticism and has shown very poor leadership skills.

"I think the public will think the punishment does not fit the crime, but knowing Tony Woods, he will feel it is the worst punishment that could have been handed down to him."

Suspended sentence for benefit fraudster

BY TOBY LOCK
tobylock@hpnorthants.co.uk

A BENEFIT cheat has been found guilty of claiming more than £12,000 by Northampton Magistrates.

Christopher Hadland, from Northampton, was found guilty of dishonestly claiming benefits of over £12,000 and was handed 12-weeks imprisonment suspended for 24 months by Northampton Magistrates.

From February 2005 until this year he claimed £10,288.78 in housing benefit and £2,369.80 in council tax benefit on the basis that he was entitled to statutory sick pay due to a leg injury and being unable to work. An investigation found that Mr Hadland was back at work in May 2005 and had been employed full-time since then, earning a basic pay, overtime and on some occasions bonuses.

During the investigation he admitted that he should have told the council of his change of circumstances and was stupid not to realise that he was still receiving benefits, despite receiving quarterly reminders from the council.

On passing sentence on Friday the bench commented that given the seriousness of the offence, Mr Hadland was very fortunate not to be facing a prison sentence.

He was handed 12-weeks imprisonment suspended for 24 months, a community order with supervision for six months, 150 hours unpaid work and ordered to repay the overpaid benefits and £600 prosecution costs.

Northampton Borough Council will continue to take action against anyone who is fraudulently claiming benefits they are not entitled to.

Anyone who suspects someone is fraudulently claiming benefits can call the council's confidential benefit fraud hotline on Northampton 837320 or email reportfraud@northampton.gov.uk

Colourful footwear goes on display

A COLOURFUL exhibition of shoe-related sculptures and paintings created by students from Boothville Primary School has gone on display at Northampton Museum and Art Gallery.

All of the artworks are inspired by Northampton's shoemaking heritage and stories from around the world.

Pupils from the school have created their own Doc Marten boots, which for many years were manufactured in Northampton.

The boots are shown alongside Dorothy's red shoes from the Wizard of Oz, the giant's boot from Jack and the Beanstalk and the shoe lived in by the little old lady who had so many children she didn't know what to do.

Josie Hickin, Northampton Borough Council shoe heritage officer, said: "It is brilliant to work with schools and to see how children can be inspired by the town they live in."

"The shoes that represent some of our much-loved stories are also a delight to see."

Boothville Presents is at the Northampton Museum and Art Gallery until Sunday November 22.

Opening times are Tuesday to Saturday 10am to 5pm and Sunday 2pm to 5pm. Admission is free.

Plans for scheme are a 'kick in the teeth'

CONSERVATIVE councillors have hit back at Gordon Brown's plans to scrap a scheme to give working families a tax cut for childcare.

In his conference speech, the Prime Minister announced that he planned to scrap the Employer Supported Childcare scheme.

Many staff at Northamptonshire County Council take advantage of the scheme and there will be many hundreds more across the county.

Councillors are now concerned that the move could force some working mothers in particular to give up work, which, given the council's high proportion of female staff would impact on vital services.

Cllr Andre Gonzalez de Savage, cabinet member for customers and communities, said: "For many working families, this announcement is a kick in the teeth. For many families where both parents work, this change will be particularly difficult."

"It is a tax increase on the cost of childcare for thousands."

"I'm particularly worried about the impact on the council, we still have staff shortages in key areas for example social workers, many of whom will be working mums."

"If we lose key staff as a result of Labour's tax increase it could have a very serious effect on our ability to provide services."

Keep buildings secure

OUTBUILDINGS have been targeted in a spate of burglaries in the west of the county.

Overnight from Sunday to Monday two stable buildings were broken into in Brook Street, Moreton Pinkney and property was stolen.

An outbuilding in Preston Capes Road, Woodford Halse, was also broken into, although nothing was taken.

The third burglary took place at some stables in Catesby Lane, Badby.

The fourth property was broken into in Brook Street, Moreton Pinkney, with the fifth crime of this type taking place in Hanslope Road, Hartwell, where horse tack, including saddles, were taken.

Police are reminding people to make sure they keep their properties as secure as possible and also urging those living in rural areas to be observant and report any suspicious activity to police.

PC Mark Osborn from Daventry Police said: "We are linking these incidents due to the type of buildings involved and their locality."

"I would urge people who own isolated outbuildings to make sure they are as secure as possible and to take as much crime prevention advice as possible."

"Anyone who would like advice on what measures can be taken can contact their local Safer Community Team on 03000 111 222 or for more information log on to www.northants.police.uk."

Tributes to Diana, a caring mum and huge football fan

BY TOBY LOCK
tobylock@northants.co.uk

HUNDREDS turned out in the rain to bid farewell to a popular community figure and a 'wonderful' mum.

Diana Moriarty died last week after a long battle with illness. She was 68.

Diana was married to Mick, and had six children John, Andrew, Kevin, Neil, Julian and Louise. She also had 13 grandchildren.

Her funeral was attended by hundreds of people as they gathered outside her home in St James Park Road and marched behind the hearse to the church.

At her request, people wore bright colours.

Daughter Louise said: "She was the best mum you could have wanted. She loved her family, children and grandchildren more than life itself."

"She was considerate, and

F She was the best mum you could have wanted. She loved her family, children and grandchildren more than life itself

— Louise, Diana's daughter caring and always had time. I cannot describe how wonderful she was.

"It was amazing to see so many people at the funeral. She helped everyone, and everybody knew my mum."

Diana was a huge football fan, was very active with St Margaret's Football Club and acted as a landlady to many players who would go on to play for Northampton Town.

Louise said: "She loved the Cobblers."

"My brothers all played football and every Sunday she would make them bacon sandwiches and be washing their kit."

"We also did Judo, and she'd always be on the sidelines watching us and cheering us on."

Cobblers players wore black armbands on Saturday and held a minute silence in their game against Bradford City as a mark of respect for Diana.

A spokesman from the club said: "Mrs Moriarty was a long time supporter of the club and we were deeply saddened to learn of her passing."

"She was well known to a lot of the players and acted as a landlady to a number of them."

"We held a minute's silence and the players wore black armbands on Saturday to show the club's respect."

"We would like to send our sincerest condolences to her friends and family."

We must be more efficient

OFFERING customers better value for money will be at the top of the agenda when councillors meet next week to discuss environmental and cultural services.

Councillors will be asked to approve an improvement and efficiency plan, as recommended by Northampton Borough Council's 'value for money' partner Northgate Kendric Ash (NKA). Approving the plan could see the council share back office services with Northamptonshire County Council and Daventry District Council environmental divisions along with other recommendations.

NKA was appointed in August to work with the council's environment and culture division to identify ways to achieve service improvement and efficiency. While the council has no option but to consider making efficiency savings, councillors could decide to disregard the recommendations and set up its own in-house team to deliver the improvements and savings needed.

Plans to build more homes

A SECOND bid could be approved next week to secure much-needed funding to build new family homes in Northampton.

Last month, Northampton Borough Council heard that its first round bid for more than £450,000 to build eight new family homes on a derelict garage site in Woodside Way was successful.

Councillors will meet next Wednesday to discuss the second bid to build six new family homes. It has to meet the same criteria as the first - the land for the proposed development must be previously developed council-owned land and the council must fund at least half of the cost.

The site being proposed for the second development is an under-used garage site in Bondfield Avenue, Kingsthorpe that has been a hotspot for anti-social behaviour. If given the go ahead by cabinet, a bid would be submitted to the Homes and Communities Agency by the end of October, followed by consultation.

Could you run the London Marathon for the animals?

IF, like me, you've been lucky enough to get a place in the 2010 Virgin London Marathon, I'm sure you'll be extremely excited.

This will be my first ever marathon. I'm really motivated to do well as I've pledged to raise £1,500 for a very worthy cause - veterinary charity PDSA.

PDSA provides free veterinary treatment to the sick and injured pets of people in need. As an animal lover, I really admire the work they do across the UK.

The charity is giving me lots of support, including training advice and they've put me in touch with other runners to share tips.

Plus, after the race, there will be somewhere to go and relax, have something to eat and drink, as well as a luxury sports massage to help ease aching muscles.

To join me and the PDSA team, please contact the fundraising department on 0800 917 2509 or email marathon@pdsa.org.uk

We need to find a permanent solution to parking problems

I READ with interest in the Herald & Post (September 24) the news that the University of Northampton is to develop its Avenue Campus site.

The locals must be dreading this if the 'development' will be anything like Park Campus.

Students who are unable to get into the tiny car park are expected to park on the neighbouring residential streets already congested due to the busy road on which Park Campus is situated.

Not only is this aggravating to the locals, it is dangerous.

Narrow residential roads are blocked so traffic can only move one way, heaven knows what will happen if a fire engine requires access in an emergency.

The paths are blocked by the cars making the walk to the nearby primary school treacherous.

When is something permanent going to be done?

The police cones are easily moved and are not an effective deterrent.

I hope an injured child is not the deciding factor.

Perhaps the university should be thinking about parking issues at the Boughton Green Road campus before creating mayhem elsewhere.

The party in power after election must make European contribution a priority

ALL political parties are talking about cutting public expenditure because of the enormous amount of debt incurred by the economic crisis.

It seems very strange to me that at a time when we may be having to cut the number of teachers and police officers the European Union continues on its spending splurge.

The net cost of the EU to the UK taxpayer is £2.5 billion but next year this is set to rocket to £6.4 billion. How can we justify this increase when we are going to have to cut frontline public services?

The EU should be cutting its budget thereby reducing the UK's contribution, not increasing it.

This increase came about under false pretences when the Prime Minister Tony Blair gave up part of our EU rebate.

This was done on the basis that the EU budget would decrease in particular farm subsidies. Quite clearly this has not happened.

Our rebate, which Margaret Thatcher fought so hard to keep should never have been given up.

Whatever party is in power after the next general election, they should reduce the UK's contribution to the European Union.

If you ask the public whether they would like to see a cut in the budget of this undemocratic and unaccountable regime rather than a cut in our front line services, I think I know what the answer will be.

Club aims to provide aid to disaster zone

THE ROTARY Club of Northampton is making a very special appeal to people in the wake of the disasters which have struck in the Pacific.

The catastrophic earthquakes, tsunamis and typhoons, have hit the countries and left thousands without shelter and clean water.

Shelterbox is a project started by Rotary in 2000.

Each Shelterbox is an easily transportable, durable plastic box which contains a custom-designed ten person tent, waterproof groundmats, thermal fleece blankets, water purifying equipment, stove and cooking equipment, waterproof ponchos, mosquito nets, tool kit and children's activity pack.

To date, Shelterboxes have been supplied to 50 countries around the world and 80 different disasters.

Not only do Rotarians make Shelterboxes possible, they form part of the Shelterbox Response Teams, who are deployed to disaster areas to deliver the Shelterbox aid directly to the people who most need it. Each box costs £490.

The Rotary urgently need to raise as much money as possible to fund as many Shelterboxes as possible and is urging people to help by donating money to the cause.

Donations should be made payable to the Rotary Club of Northampton and posted to Rotarian Jim Buckley, The Old White House, Froghall, Brixworth, Northampton, NN6 9DJ.

Spending cuts will protect key services

BY TOBY LOCK

tobylock@northants.co.uk

INTERNAL spending will be trimmed at the county council to secure front line services.

Tough new internal spending restrictions have been laid out by Northamptonshire County Council to protect front line services from the effects of the recession and imminent government reductions in public spending.

The current economic climate, continued reductions in money from central government and an increase in people using services due to Northamptonshire having the fastest growing population in the country means the council has much less money to spend.

An immediate action plan has been introduced for the period up to the end of the financial year, which will aim at making the cash go further with money being saved through careful budget management.

Steps being taken include reviewing all expenditure on the employment of consultants and agency staff, all recruitment and use of external venues for meetings and training. These will be stopped where it makes the best sense for taxpayers' money.

F We are facing tough economic times and this calls for equally tough measures to be enforced

Leader of Northamptonshire County Council, Cllr Jim Harker, said: "We are facing tough economic times and this calls for equally tough measures to be enforced so that we continue to deliver excellent front line services throughout the county while at the same time keeping council tax at a low level.

"These measures are simple steps to ensuring that we run services as efficiently and leanly as possible and I believe this is the best way of achieving the goals we have set."

The effectiveness of the measures will be reviewed in December.

Leader of the Opposition, Cllr Brendan Glynane said: "The county council budget so far is forecast for a £6m overspend, so this seems to me like a desperate damage limitation measure to claw back some of the money."

"It all stems from when it set the budget last year. We knew the recession was coming, but there were no measures put in place."

"They should have been suggesting things like this months ago."

"There have been several problems as well, like when the deal to sell the school sites fell through, but someone has to take up their finances to stem the flow of the overspend."

Councillors award more than £1million to groups

COMMUNITIES have benefited with more than £1.1 million of investment by their ward councillors.

The Empowering Councillors and Communities project gives county councillors direct powers of investment in their ward and the discretion to decide which projects, groups or facilities will benefit most from their cash.

The initiative, which is the first of its kind in the East Midlands region, allows councillors a total of £10,000, a mixture of capital and revenue, to spend in their own wards, with any money left over carried forward to the following year.

An annual report into the scheme showed that in the financial year 2008/2009 at total of £1,177,881 was awarded to 692 projects.

Community schemes, sports clubs and village halls were some of a number of areas to benefit. The report also revealed that groups across all age ranges benefited from the scheme with 31 per cent of projects looking at groups which focused on people under the age of 18.

The research showed that the main way people found out about the initiative was from their county councillor.

All councillors were given training on how to go about consulting with local people to find out views on how they should spend their allocation in order to benefit their communities most.

Some of the councillors are still consulting with their communities and planning where the money should be spent although they can choose to rollover the money, for up to four years, to save up more to spend on a larger-scale project.

a message from the Mayor

Our youngsters really do some great things

THE Mayor of Northampton, Cllr Michael Hill, has visited many groups during his term of office so far. In his exclusive column for the Herald & Post he talks about the youth work going on in our town.

THERE are so many, and so varied, events in the Mayor's diary it is sometimes difficult to pick out those of the greatest importance, but in the past month the Mayoress and I have been to some significant events with or for young people.

The first of these was the annual presentation event for the Rugby and Northampton Athletic Club.

There was a procession of athletes, many of them in their teens, who came to accept medals and trophies.

The number of club records and personal best times was an inspiration and a great tribute to their coaches.

The second was the annual meeting of the county's Scout Council, where the wide range of activities the Scouts undertake was made known. The highlight of this was a presentation by a Deanshanger troop who went to a jamboree in Russia, who lived rough in the steppes but made friends with Russian and other overseas Scouting groups.

Third in the list was the presentation evening following a five-a-side football competition organised by the Muslim Youth Forum but including teams from other faiths.

There was no doubt that this was a major step towards dispelling some of the misunderstandings of Muslim culture.

Three good news stories, but we cannot ignore the fact that not all young people lead a life with good role models and no problems.

So it was very interesting to attend the annual meeting of Lowdown, a charity based in the town centre which aims to help troubled young people in their teens and early twenties.

Here trained counsellors lend a listening ear and will provide advice on any problem a young person faces - finding accommodation, contraception, anger management and help with careers advice to name but four.

Over 10,000 young people pass through their doors in Kingswell Street each year, and it is impossible to estimate how many have gone on to lead more fulfilled lives over the charity's 20 years.

So where does this column take us?

It starts with the fact that the great majority of young people, whatever their faith or ethnicity, lead constructive lives where they strive to do great things.

And for those less fortunate there is always a helping hand if they know where to go for it.

Phil Hope MP takes a look around

Village life gets the thumbs-up

BY TOBY LOCK

toby.lock@hpnorthants.co.uk

CARE minister Phil Hope MP visited Northampton's pioneering retirement scheme to meet two residents who have benefited from a charity.

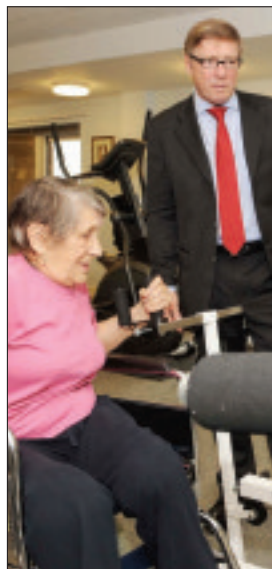

Mr Hope visited St Crispin Village on Tuesday, October 6 meeting two residents who have both benefited as a result of the life-changing support offered by Village Charity, The ExtraCare Charitable Trust.

Resident Barbara Burgess, aged 77, recently went on a village abseiling and activity trip despite having limited mobility following a stroke.

George Thompson, 83, is now healthy again after treatment for high blood pressure, caught early through the charity's award winning well-being service.

Both residents met the Minister as they worked out in the village gym.

St Crispin Village received £450,000 from The Department of Health when it opened in 2006, in partnership with Northamptonshire County Council, Northampton Borough Council, Midland Heart and The ExtraCare Charitable Trust. One of the largest schemes of its kind in the UK, St Crispin comprises 270 affordable mixed-tenure properties surrounding a health and leisure facility which is open to 350 residents and welcomes more than 200 visitors from the wider community.

ExtraCare's on-site staff provide assessed care in residents own village homes if they require support.

Mr Hope, also MP for Corby and East Northants, said: "I am delighted to visit St Crispin Village and meet some of the people who have benefited from its services and community."

"I believe people should be able to live fulfilled, independent lives in their retirement and St Crispin helps people do that whatever their care needs."

"By offering activities like abseiling, St Crispin is challenging traditional and outdated stereotypes of old age and helping people to stay fit and healthy for longer."

John Payne, partnership director for The ExtraCare Charitable Trust, said: "We were delighted to welcome the Minister. This village offers an innovative approach to older people's housing and care."

"It provides a safe and social environment at an affordable cost and is popular with our residents who value their independent lifestyle."

Don't lose your right to have a say and vote

THOUSANDS of car parking tickets in Northampton are to carry a reminder to urge people to secure their right to vote.

Tickets from pay-and-display machines will feature an advert from Northampton Borough Council reminding people to register to vote.

Electoral registration forms have gone out from Northampton Borough Council's electoral services team to all 96,000 homes in the town.

So far, around 55,000 have been returned and the parking tickets are being used to remind people not to lose their right to vote.

The forms are very simple and take just moments to fill in. If the information on the form is up-to-date, people can simply call the freephone number 0808 161 7631 to register or visit the website www.register-online.co.uk to secure their vote.

The form can also be posted back in the envelope provided free of charge.

The council's electoral services manager Ross Thompson said: "We are busy processing all the forms we have received so far and want to ensure that everyone eligible to vote is on the electoral roll."

"The form people will have received is clear and simple to fill in and we hope these adverts will remind people to send their forms in as soon as they can."

"If you aren't on the electoral roll, you miss the chance to be involved in deciding how the country is run or how services are provided in Northampton."

Electoral registration forms must be received by Friday, November 23 in time for publishing the electoral roll on Tuesday, December 1.

Anyone who needs further information or help with their form can call 01604 837111.

Charity badges go down a storm

WITH the spotlight falling on Breast Cancer awareness month, JULIE FISHER caught up with Glennis Hooper from the Crazy Hats campaign to find out what the charity has going on.

THIS year's badges helping to raise money for Crazy Hats are being snapped up - so much so that organisers at the charity are hoping they have enough to see the month out.

The popular pins have become a regular feature in Northamptonshire during Breast Cancer Awareness month which aims to highlight the disease and why early detection is essential.

Glennis Hooper is the founder of the charity.

She said: "We've had so many orders it's hard to tell how many we've sold."

"We've been in Kettering and the Swansgate Centre in Wellingborough already."

"We're hoping we have enough to the end of the month."

"The interest has been great and I think because people know us a lot more now they look out for them."

"What we've found is a lot of men are buying them for their ladies."

"The relationship we have with the public is very special and most people know about us now."

Crazy Hats raises money to support breast cancer facilities in the county, as well as offering support to people battling the disease and the families around them.

"I think every month is Breast Cancer Awareness month and this is a good time to raise awareness in a positive way," said Mrs Hooper.

"We are out offering support and raising awareness for people to keep to their mammogram appointments and go to the doctors if they feel anything suspect.

"We get a lot of people coming to talk to us when we are out and about."

"Some stories are quite sad and some are very positive."

"I feel it's an outlet for people to come and offload a little bit."

"It's not always the patient, it's the carers as well, we get a lot of families come to talk to us."

Being part of any team provides people with a real sense of camaraderie, even more so at Crazy Hats because the people who work behind the scenes have all been touched by breast cancer in one form or another.

Mrs Hooper said: "It's hard work but hats off to the team here."

"We've got a great committee and a great group of people here."

"These events do not just happen. The effort they put in is quite admirable. The atmosphere is lovely."

"All of us at Crazy Hats have had a connection with breast cancer in one way or another."

"We can't give medical advice but we sure can listen to people and if it helps, great."

The Crazy Hats team will be in the Grosvenor Centre in Northampton on Saturday, October 24 and the Swansgate Centre in Wellingborough on Tuesday, October 27.

Businesses are being asked to donate prizes to a pink tombola which will be held.

Anyone who would like to help can contact Crazy Hats on 01933 442999.

Signs people should be aware of

- Know what is normal for you
- Look at and feel your breasts
- Know what changes to look for
- Report any changes without delay
- Go for breast screening if you are 50 or over

Look out for:

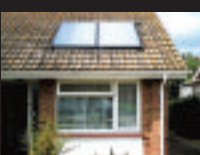

- A change in the size, shape or feel of your breast
- A new lump or thickening in one breast or armpit
- Puckering, dimpling or redness of the skin
- Changes in the position of the nipple or nipple discharge
- New pain or discomfort that is only on one side.

Light fantastic for Hindu celebration

BY TOBY LOCK

toby.lock@hpnorthants.co.uk

DIWALI will be celebrated in Northampton in the town centre this weekend.

The Indian Hindu Welfare Organisation (IHWO) is hosting its ninth annual Diwali Lights Festival in Northampton town centre on Saturday.

The event has grown year on year and has now become one of the town's most colourful and vibrant events, which last year attracted thousands of spectators during the course of the day.

Diwali is the most popular of the Hindu festivals and is described as the "Festival of Light" as it signifies the triumph of light over darkness and good over evil.

The event on Saturday will begin at 1pm and run through to 8.30pm in Northampton town centre's Market Square and Fishmarket Galleries.

It will start in the Market Square with a range of traditional Indian workshops, including Henna tattooing, 'Rangoli' art and a Diwali card workshop, 'how to wear a Sari' demonstration and various traditional music and dance performances.

There will also be Indian food stalls.

The highlight of the event will be the now famous Diwali

Lantern Procession, which will leave the Fishmarket at 6pm and parade its way through the town centre followed by hundreds of people.

As with last year's event IHWO has secured the expertise of the famous carnival arts company Festive Road, which has helped IHWO to create impressive displays for this year's procession.

The procession will draw to a close in the Market Square where people will then witness the official switching on of the Diwali lights followed by an Indian bhanga party.

Neelam Aggarwal, chairwoman of the IHWO, said: "Such events give us, the Hindu community, a chance to share our world with the wider community in Northampton. The event will be a fun and colourful day out for the whole family with various activities for children and adults to take part in.

"This includes take-part demonstrations, competitions, Indian music and dance, the vibrant procession and of course our delicious authentic cuisine."

Cllr Paul Varnsvery, cabinet member for communities at Northampton Borough Council, added: "The wonderful selection of activities that are taking place on the Market Square will really bring communities together and showcase some special Hindu traditions to the people of Northampton."

Jogger runs away from trouser-less van driver

A MAN exposed himself to a jogger as she ran through Broughton.

It happened on Saturday, October 3 at 2.30pm.

The woman was out running and was passing out of the village when a small van passed her and stopped.

As she approached the van a man stepped out of the vehicle and was naked from the waist down. As she was frightened she turned and ran back towards the village.

A man in another vehicle stopped and asked her if she was ok, and she believed this gentleman witnessed the incident. There were also other vehicles passing, the occupants of which may also have seen the incident.

The offender is described as white, in his mid 30s, of medium build with short brown hair and wearing a dark blue polo shirt. Witnesses are asked to contact police on 03000 111 222.

Cutbacks will make it safer

BY TOBY LOCK

toby.lock@hpnorthants.co.uk

AROUND £12,000 will be spent in Lings and Lumbertubs cutting back trees and bushes to make the area feel safer.

People from Lings and Lumbertubs voted on how to spend £27,000 of Government money to transform their communities at the launch of the Safer Lings and Lumbertubs Project on Thursday, October 1.

Members of the public arrived at Lumbertubs School to help make decisions on how to reduce crime and improve the environment in the wards.

From a number of suggestions made by Crime Prevention Officers and Neighbourhood Wardens, Lings and Lumbertubs residents chose the following five options as priorities for their communities:

- £4,081 will be paid to the Northamptonshire County Council Youth Service for detached youth work and related activities

- Up to £12,000 will be made available for cutting back trees and shrubs to make the estate feel lighter and safer

- Up to £5,000 will be made available to gate alleyways but is dependent upon a variety of legal and technical issues which are being investigated

- Up to £1,000 will be made available for community skip-drops to prevent fly-tipping

- £2,000 is earmarked for getting more people involved

The remaining money will be used for a variety of repairs and environmental enhancements to be prioritised by the Residents' Council, all of which will be discussed in more detail at a meeting on Tuesday, October 13.

Cllr Paul Varnsvery, of the Safer Stronger Northampton Partnership, said: "People often complain that they're not adequately consulted on the key issues that are important to them, so this is a superb example both of working in partnership with communities and providing those communities with a real role in the decision-making process."

A similar project carried out in Thorplands earlier this year resulted in a drop of up to 50 per cent in reported crime and incidents and was very popular.

The Safer Stronger Northampton Partnership aims to build on the experience gained in Thorplands and repeat that success.

The future of health is now in your hands

BY JULIE FISHER

julie.fisher@hpnorthants.co.uk

PEOPLE can have their say on health care at a series of meetings.

The Delivering the Future events have been organised to take place across the county by NHS Northamptonshire.

Chief executive John Parkes said: "We will also be asking patients, the public, partners and local stakeholders how they believe our resources would be best invested given the challenging economic climate."

The new round of meetings follow on from a number of "Facing the Future" discussions last year that helped shape NHS Northamptonshire's strategic direction.

Mr Parkes said: "The feedback we got last year from our public engagement was crucial in helping us shape our direction and future services."

"We listened to what patients and the public told us could be most improved and responded, putting in place a range of initiatives to address these concerns."

He added: "At NHS Northamptonshire we feel the views of our patients and public are vital to the way we design and deliver quality healthcare services; we want to work in partnership with patients, local partners and residents so that we can provide the best possible health services for the people of Northamptonshire."

Meetings will be held on:

■ October 15: Kettering Conference Centre, Thurston Drive, Kettering (9.30am-1.30pm)

■ October 20: Towcester Centre for Leisure, Springfields, Towcester (9.30am-1.30pm)

■ October 22: Wellingborough Museum, Castle Way, Wellingborough (10.30am-2.30pm)

■ October 27: Pemberton Centre, H E Bates Way, Rushden (9.30am-1.30pm)

■ October 30: Lodge Park Sports Centre, Shetland Way, Corby (12.30pm-4.30pm)

Anyone wishing to attend should contact Michelle Tansley on 01604 651745 or michelle.tansley@northants.nhs.uk

Mum's the word when it comes to family time

BY TOBY LOCK

tobylock@hpnorthants.co.uk

A NORTHAMPTON mum has won a top award for her entrepreneurial skills.

Mum-of-four Lisa Warner, pictured, has won the O2 Entrepreneur of the Year Award held last week in London.

Lisa, founder of FINK family conversation cards, was one of eight finalists from around the country to reach the final.

She received her award at a glittering awards ceremony held at Paramount on New Oxford Street in London.

Lisa first came up with the family and teenage question cards to make meal times less hectic and to ensure the short time the whole family spent together was meaningful.

Lisa said: "I came up with the idea of a series of question cards that the whole family answered while eating together."

"The children immediately began to look forward to sitting around the table giving their answers and we all had a chance to share our thoughts and experiences with each other."

Using the principles of her home-made cards, Lisa launched Fink Cards in September 2008 to promote conversation and help people of all ages to become both good listeners and confident communicators.

For more information about Fink Cards visit www.finkcards.com

Making the books balance

STUDENTS at Northampton College are offering their services to businesses as they prepare for their future careers.

Accounting students at the College will be offering businesses a book-keeping and account preparation service.

The new, mutually beneficial scheme will not only improve students' employment prospects, but will also provide a valuable assistance to business start-ups.

In partnership with the University of Northampton Enterprise Club, which offers a range of support to new businesses, a group of Level 3 Association of Accounting Technicians (AAT) students will provide members with a number of book-keeping services.

Students will be supervised by fully qualified lecturers, and will charge a nominal fee depending upon company turnover.

Jane Humphreys, AAT lecturer and whose idea it was, said: "It's becoming increasingly apparent that experience makes all the difference when it comes to finding a job. This scheme will give our students that valuable first hand knowledge which will hopefully mean it is easier for them to secure employment when they leave college."

"The Level 3 learners work at a very high level and are competent in providing assistance with general administration, invoice preparation, income and expenditure analysis, profit and loss and balance sheets."

The Enterprise Club at The University of Northampton helps individuals with new business ideas or those who have already started their businesses.

Janice Watkins, project leader, said: "It's a great idea. Book-keeping is often seen as one of those mundane tasks that tends to be put off, but all businesses need comprehensive accounts and this provision from the students at the College will really help out some of our clients."

"There's a huge pool of businesses who we can offer this service."

People who live in the wards of Castle, Lumbertubs or Thorplands can apply for a three month Trilogy Health and Fitness membership for £5.

If they use the Northampton Borough Council facilities on average of three times a week then they will get another three months membership at no further cost.

Cllr Paul Varnsberry, cabinet member for communities, said: "This is a great scheme which gives people who live in the three wards an opportunity to make use of Trilogy Health and Fitness centres at a time when they might not be able afford the regular membership price.

"Successful applicants will have access to the high-tech gyms, swimming pools and fitness classes at the council's three facilities - Danes Camp, Lings Forum and Mounts Baths.

"It's not every day you get the chance to get fit for a fiver so I'm sure these final places will be quickly snapped up."

Fiona Grant, programme lead on staying healthy at NHS Northamptonshire, added: "Regular exercise is an important part of a healthy lifestyle and this scheme will allow people to access Trilogy Health and Fitness centre's facilities at a time when people can't afford gym membership prices."

Yve Hamilton-Bruce joined the scheme in August. She said: "It's absolutely brilliant because there is so much to do at the centres and because I'm retired I have plenty of time in the day to go and exercise.

"I'm 63 and disabled but the trainer gives me advice, which is very good. We worked out a special programme for me to get me fitter and more mobile and I even bought my first pair of trainers ever."

Anybody who is interested can apply by sending their name and address, including postcode, to Trilogy Health and Fitness, Northampton Borough Council, FREEPOST, MID 17237, NN1 1WJ. You must be over 16 and live in one of the three wards.

She's a literary marvel

SPONNE School can boast an exceptional librarian. Lynne Varley (right) has been included on the SLA School Librarian of the Year Honour List, one of only four to make the list.

Lynne has made the library at Sponne Community Technology College in Towcester the busiest place in a bustling comprehensive school.

She has trained pupil librarians to help at the busiest periods.

A whole school Information Literacy Policy initiated by Lynne is her proudest achievement, but this is just one of many initiatives she has put into place.

Lynne said: "It is a privilege to be considered one of the four best school librarians in the country.

"I love my job and feel fortunate to have the opportunity of encouraging young people in the delights of reading and the importance of independent learning."

Jamie Clarke, head-teacher at Sponne, added: "She does a tremendous job here at Sponne School and works tirelessly to support all aspects of the school through outstanding resources."

Keep dancing for good cause

THE mayor of Towcester will host a tea dance to help raise money for his charities.

Cllr Chris Lofts will support Towcester and District NCT, the PSP Association which is based in the town and Towcester Wildlife Group by holding the event on Saturday, October 17.

The event is jointly organised with Towcester Tea Rooms, who are raising funds for the Northants Alzheimer's Society. Tickets cost £5 which includes tea, coffee and cream scones. There will be a raffle and all proceeds going jointly to the Mayor's charities and the Alzheimer's Society.

The function is not just for dancers - anyone who just wants to attend and watch or listen to the music will be very welcome, as will any raffle prizes people want to bring on the day.

Tickets are available from the Town Hall, Towcester Tea Rooms and Colemans Stationers on 01327 350435.

COUNCIL staff hit the streets at the weekend to raise more than £1,500 for a colleague's poorly child.

Eleven employees in the county council communications and marketing teams joined chief executive Katherine Kerswell to support the Children's Liver Disease Foundation (CLDF) by taking part in The Run 09.

The charity provides care to communications team manager Sarah Hobbs' family.

Sarah's daughter Lily, four, has biliary atresia, a potentially life-threatening liver disease which causes the bile ducts to become progressively blocked. Sarah said: "When Lily was born she was jaundiced for much longer than normal and it was terrifying to see her failing to thrive."

"When she was diagnosed our lives were shattered but CLDF picked up the pieces and gave us hope for the future."

"Lily is healthy at the moment, taking medication and vitamins daily to help her liver do its job, but we know she may need a liver transplant in the future."

"I'm so grateful that my colleagues in the corporate management, communication and marketing teams want to support the Foundation - it's been a real lifeline to my family."

Sarah's teammate, internal communications specialist Caren Ayres said: "We wanted to do something to get fit as a group and have a bit of fun at the same time."

"We all work to improve Northamptonshire and have watched Lily bravely face many challenges in her young life, so it made sense to support both CLDF and one of Northamptonshire's premier running events."

Catherine Arkley, chief executive of CLDF, the leading charity fighting childhood liver disease, said: "In the UK two children like Lily are diagnosed with a liver disease each day, more than childhood leukaemia. The vast majority of CLDF funds come from fundraising just like this."

Scheme starts to target anti-social behaviour

OFFICERS have been reducing incidents of anti-social behaviour through using a number of tactics in the Spencer area.

Following concerns raised by residents, the Spencer Safer Community Team (SCT) has been carrying out high visibility patrols in the area and taking positive action when dealing with incidents.

Where necessary, officers have been directing individuals to leave an area for a period of 24 or 48 hours, confiscating alcohol and issuing Section 59 warnings - these are given to people who are driving or riding in a manner that could cause alarm or distress to another member of the public.

Additionally, PCSO Steve Whiting has helped set up a Neighbourhood Watch (NHW) scheme in the area.

The NHW will be holding their first meeting in Warren Road, Northampton on Tuesday, October 20 at 7.30pm.

Sergeant Lara Alexander-Lloyd, who joined the Spencer SCT on Monday, September 14, is committed to tackling issues in the Warren Road area and is working closely with the housing department and anti-social behaviour unit to improve the quality of life for residents.

New book looks at our county's past

BY JODIE PARSONS

jodie.parsons@hpnorthants.co.uk

PEOPLE can delve into the history of the county with the 2009 edition of Northamptonshire Past and Present.

The journal from the Northamptonshire Record Society was published on Saturday and contains a whole host of papers relating to the county.

There's the Wydeville family of Grafton and letters from the Crimea by a Bouverie of Delapre.

If politics are more your thing maybe town elections would be of interest with one describing the more rowdy and colourful elections of the 18th and 19th centuries while the other gives an insight into the early days of the British Union of Fascists and the Mosleys' activities in Northampton in the 1930s.

Women feature prominently with information on Maud Holand whose effigy lies in the church in Woodford Halse, actress Jane Pope, Lady Langham who left her accounts for the household at Cottesbrooke and Cynthia Mosley, the wife of politician Oswald.

The journal is billed as a 'rich mixture of information'. The Record Society is based at Wootton Hall Park in Northampton.

Council awarded three stars for equality standard

BY TOBY LOCK

tobylock@hpnorthants.co.uk

NORTHAMPTON Borough Council has been awarded Level 3 of the national Equality Standard set for local councils.

Last week a team of independent inspectors from the IDeA looked at how the council was meeting the needs of the town's residents and ensuring fairness to both customers and employees.

The assessors reviewed the council's policies, spoke with some customers, members, union officials and employees, and looked at how equality issues were considered in every council activity.

When confirming the council had achieved Level 3 the inspectors praised the work of councillors and staff right across the organisation and made positive comments about everyone's enthusiasm, professionalism and commitment.

Cllr Tony Woods, leader of Northampton Borough Council said: "This is another step forward as Northampton Borough Council continues to improve."

"Along with the Access to Services report this shows that the improvements we are making are being recognised."

"This is more than having documents and policies in place - achieving Level 3 shows we are living up to our commitments with action."

"Of course there's still more to do to reach our ambition, but this success shows we are on the right road for equality."

Helping you to stub it out

GETTING people to quit smoking is a top priority for the NHS in Northamptonshire.

Smoking remains the single greatest cause of preventable illness and premature death in England and is linked with the development of lung cancer and heart and respiratory disease.

It is estimated that smoking causes 87,000 deaths each year in England, 7,000 in the East Midlands and 931 in Northamptonshire alone.

According to NHS Northamptonshire nearly 1,200 people quit smoking in the county between April and June 2009 through the support of the free NHS Stop Smoking Service.

Pam Berry, programme lead on smoking cessation in Northamptonshire, said: "Quitting smoking is one of the most important decisions any smoker can make to help improve their health and increase life expectancy."

"We're delighted that nearly 1,200 people quit between April and June 2009 and want to ensure that even more people are helped to stop smoking in the coming months."

For help quitting smoking contact your local Stop Smoking Service helpline: 0845 601 3116 or visit <http://smokefree.nhs.uk>

Alcohol project gets shown to ministers

YOUNG women from Northampton met ministers at the Labour Party Conference to help tackle binge drinking.

Members of the YWCA Northampton Women's Centre, Gemma Ray and Kayleigh Devlin, met Ed Milliband, MP Secretary of State for Energy and Climate Change, and Dawn Butler MP to speak about an alcohol project they have been involved in, which included designing a leaflet guide for other women to stay safe drinking and an origami game to raise awareness of the reasons young people drink.

The leaflet included tips on drinking safely and quizzes and facts to encourage young women to recognise their limits. Combined with the game, the young women aimed to show ministers the different root causes of teen alcohol abuse.

Gemma said: "It was a brilliant experience and we enjoyed meeting the ministers."

"It was interesting talking about the problem of binge drinking with them because this is something young people should have their say about."

Get your bids in for CAN

BY JODIE PARSONS

jodie.parsons@hpnorthants.co.uk

FOR one night only Frank Sinatra and Britney Spears will be sharing the bill with a man who looks uncannily like Elton John.

The stars are among a host of top names to have signed memorabilia up for grabs at a charity auction in aid of CAN and its drug, alcohol and homelessness services.

As well as the auction there will be a buffet and a rare chance to see top Elton John tribute John Ellis, pictured, who lives in Northampton.

The event will take place on Thursday, October 22 at Brampton Halt, Chapel Brampton from 7.15pm.

It is being held in conjunction with the McManus Pub Company, which runs Brampton Halt and Our Price Records, which will be running the auction and has come up with the extraordinary lots.

Football fans should look out for the George Best montage signed by the great man which has a reserve price of £595 or the Legends football with signatures from Alex Stepney to Sir Alex Ferguson.

If pop is more your thing then maybe the Gladiators montage signed by Britney Spears, Pink and Beyonce would get you bidding.

Further lots include a Scarface DVD gold disc finished in 24 carat gold and signed by Al Pacino, a signed Jensen Button canvas and a hairstyler, celebrity makeover and photoshoot for two people.

Once the bidding is over John Ellis, who has performed all over the world, will perform Elton John classics.

He said: "I like living in Northampton and it's great to play locally and for such a good cause."

CAN's fundraising co-ordinator Andy Shaw said: "If you want to make an advance bid, email your bid and contact details by Tuesday, October 20, to me at andy.shaw@can.org.uk. But if you want a night to remember, combining the excitement of bidding for some of these fantastic items with a buffet and Britain's number one Elton John tribute, then book your tickets now."

■ Tickets are £15 from Brampton Halt on 01604 842676 or bramptonhalt@mcmanshipub.co.uk or from CAN on 01604 824777 or alison.moore@can.org.uk

Players go on tour with new show

COMPANY MK are back with a new musical and for the first time ever are touring Northamptonshire.

Following on from the success of the award winning City of Angels and the sell out show Buddy the Musical, the group of players' latest offering is Stepping Out - The Musical.

The show is the laugh out loud story of Mavis and her troupe of rhythmically challenged tap dancers as they struggle to put together a routine fit for an audience.

Rehearsals take place once a week in a village hall and as the play unfolds so do the life stories.

Songs highlight the troubles and personalities of each of the characters; Mavis the ex-professional dancer who runs the class, bubbly Sylvia, nervous Andy, snobby Vera, confident and attractive Maxine, plain Lynne who is very serious about dancing, anxious Dorothy, rhythmic Rose, Geoffrey the widowed male and pianist Mrs Fraser.

Featuring a witty script, fantastic musical numbers and some knock out tapping, this is a show with something for everyone.

After their shows in Wolverton the group will bring it to Northants thanks to funding from the Northamptonshire Community Foundation.

You can see it at Badby Village Hall on October 22, Blisworth Village Hall from October 23 and Long Buckby Community Centre on the 24.

Tour tickets are £10 from www.ticketsource.co.uk/companymk for details.

For concessions email companymk@yahoo.co.uk or call 07948 978922.

Tickets are also available from Long Buckby Newsagents, Long Buckby's Peephole Gallery and Badby and District Film Society.

HEAR THE MUSIC OF SOME OF THE GREATS NORTHAMPTON band The Jets will be on stage this weekend to perform in their new musical Kings of Harmony.

The trio of Cotton brothers, Bob, Ray and Tony, have been making music for 30 years but have now added another string to their bow by creating their own musical.

Kings of Harmony presents the classic hits from the 60s and early 70s in a professionally choreographed and directed show.

It can be seen at Cripps Hall, Billing Road, Northampton on Saturday at 7.30pm.

Tickets are £15 or £13 concessions from 01604 258666.

Up's a high flyer but not a classic

REVIEW

UP (U)

Voice cast: Ed Asner, Jordan Nagai, Christopher Plummer, John Ratzenberger
Director: Pete Docter
Running Time: 1hr 30mins

JUST when you thought they couldn't take the genre any further, Disney/Pixar take it into orbit - quite literally - with Up.

The winning combination continue to be the masters of their computer-animated domain by producing another intelligent original tale that isn't just a joy to look at but heartwarming to watch.

After the excellent adult-orientated but ultimately possibly too high-brow for younger children offerings of Ratatouille and Wall-E, Pixar manages to cater for all age groups with a more kid-friendly run-time of around ninety minutes. Again, no major A-list star names are used in the voice cast, as Up chronicles the life of 78-year-old balloon salesman Carl Fredricksen (voiced by Emmy-award winning American TV stalwart Ed Asner) who aims to fulfill his late wife's ambition of moving to South America's idyllic Paradise Falls after her recent death.

Rather than being forced into a retirement home, he attaches hundred of balloons to his beloved house and takes to the skies but unfortunately, young lovable do-gooder scout Russell (Jordan Nagai), inadvertently gets carried along for the ride.

The duo then get embroiled into all kinds of mischief primarily at the hands of dastardly alienated explorer Charles Muntz (Christopher Plummer) as grumpy Fredricksen shakes off the pain of sorrow and finds himself again, with sporadic lump in the throat heart-rending moments thrown in.

Despite it being a cleverly-crafted story, Up doesn't have the notable adult jokes and supporting cast ingenuity of previous Pixar outings - and the subplot isn't quite as exciting as it could have been.

But that merely condemns it to the still exceptional 'very good' category with the likes of Cars and Finding Nemo, instead of 'classic' status with the genre-defining Toy Story 1 and 2, The Incredibles and Wall-E - which just shows how good Disney/Pixar really are.

That means Up still rises high above all non-Pixar animations and complete with luscious visuals (and it's also in 3D) it's the best of its ilk this year.

Gavin Miller: 4/5

Experts to run classes

A WEST End actress who trained at theatre school with Victoria Beckham is offering her expertise to those with a passion for the stage.

Julie McKenna moved to Northampton aged 11 and attended Thomas Becket Upper School and Parkside Dance School before heading to Laine Theatre Arts in Epsom, where she trained alongside a young Posh Spice. She had her first big break straight from college, in Andrew Lloyd Webber's West End show, Starlight Express, playing the leading role of Dinah.

She also worked in theatre, TV and as a singer in Germany, before returning to the UK where numerous theatre roles followed. TV credits include a backing dancer on X Factor and she has even competed for her country in baton twirling and now trains the national squad.

Julie is bringing her expertise to Northampton in the form of Top Hat Theatre School. All of the teachers are from West End Shows with classes in dance, drama, singing, musical theatre and baton twirling. Classes are every Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday. View the timetable at www.tophattheatreschool.co.uk

Have the time of your life

PATRICK Swayze will be remembered at a special tribute night celebrating one of his biggest films - Dirty Dancing.

Whittlebury Hall Hotel and Spa, which has had great success with its tribute evenings, is set to dedicate an evening to the hit film.

Bernard Zechner, from the venue, said: "This has to be one of the best evenings we have put on at the hotel, so much nostalgia for so many people, in so many different ways. And even though it was a film made over 20 years ago, still so many young people of today get just as hooked as we did."

The Dirty Dancing Movie Night is tomorrow from 7.30pm with a three-course movie-style dinner and half a bottle of wine, interval treats such as candy floss and popcorn, live dancing and entertainment and the chance to watch one of the ultimate chick flicks.

The evening is £45 per person including the meal, half bottle of house wine and entertainment or £80 which includes an overnight stay with full English breakfast and full use of the leisure facilities.

To book call 0845 400 0003.

Churchill in panto - oh yes he is

WHEN asked to do panto this Christmas, Churchill the dog didn't dream of saying 'oh no, no, no, no, no' but gave a big 'oh yes' to jumping from small-screen to the stage.

After a 13 year advertising career in the insurance industry the popular pooch has agreed to make his live theatre debut.

He will appear in 22 Christmas productions, performing to an estimated audience of 1.5 million, including a visit to Northampton's Royal & Derngate, sharing the stage with Linda Lusardi in Snow White.

Other stars he will meet during his tour include John Barrowman and Shane Richie.

Pantomime producers Qdos Entertainment, who sorted the deal, have not revealed the exact role he'll be playing but it's likely the star will be giving good advice to goodies and bad counsel to baddies, sticking to his usual oh no, oh yes script.

Nominations give a nod to theatre's hard work

BY JODIE PARSONS

jodie.parsons@hpnorthants.co.uk

ROYAL & Derngate has been nominated for four prestigious theatre awards.

The Theatrical Management Association has just announced the nominations for its annual awards and the Northampton theatre has productions and co-productions shortlisted in four categories.

Anna Francolini has been nominated in Best Performance in a Play for the title role in Royal & Derngate's production of The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie, a role which she reprised in a highly acclaimed run at the Edinburgh Fringe this summer, there earning a nomination for best actress in The Stage Awards for Acting Excellence.

In the Best Lighting Design category James Farncombe has been nominated for his work on Alan Ayckbourn's Private Fears in Public Places which was part of Royal & Derngate's celebration of playwright Alan Ayckbourn.

This particular production saw the audience seated on the Royal stage in and around the action of the play.

The past year has seen a number of Royal & Derngate co-productions on tour around the country, including Kneehigh Theatre's Brief Encounter which is up for Best Touring Production.

In the Best Director category Scott Graham and Steven Hoggett are under consideration for Frantic Assembly's Othello, produced in collaboration with Royal & Derngate.

The theatre's chief executive Martin Sutherland said: "We're delighted that Royal & Derngate's work is gaining the recognition it deserves and pleased to be firmly establishing Northampton on the national map in the arts world. We'd like to thank all the people who have collaborated with us to make our productions so highly acclaimed."

The TMA Awards are the only national awards celebrating the best in regional theatre and the winners will be announced at an awards ceremony on November 1.

■ Northampton Amateur Operatic Company take to the stage at Royal & Derngate next week in the Cole Porter musical Anything Goes.

The show is on from October 13 to 17. Call their box office on 01604 624811 for tickets.

Let the ballet kick-start the festive season

CHRISTMAS will come early this year when the Northern Ballet Theatre journey through Scrooge's past, present and future.

As part of its 40th anniversary celebrations the Theatre is touring with Charles Dickens' classic A Christmas Carol.

And the festive season will get a head start as it comes to Milton Keynes Theatre next week from October 13 to 17.

A combination of theatre, musical and ballet, NBT's A Christmas Carol tells the story of Ebenezer Scrooge's transformation from skin-flint to the most famous champion of Christmas spirit as he journeys through time to be confronted by ghostly visions from his past, present and future.

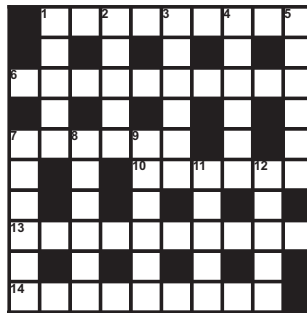

Colourful sets and costumes conjure up a traditional Victorian Christmas and are perfectly complemented by the festive score which blends classical music, played live by NBT's Orchestra, with well-known Christmas carols.

The production has been a much-loved staple in the NBT repertoire since 1992 and has been toured extensively.

Last two available at popular spot

TWO of the region's companies are hoping to build on past successes by working together to market the final properties for sale at a new homes development in Wellingborough.

David Wilson South Midlands and Bairstow Eves are joining forces once again to promote the final two homes that the housebuilder has available at its The Burrows development on Finedon Road.

The two companies have enjoyed a successful working relationship for the past 11 years and hope to continue that success here.

Comprising a selection of one, two, three and four bedroom homes, The Burrows has proven popular with a wide variety of homehunters, from first time buyers looking for an ideal starter home, to expanding families seeking a larger property to accommodate their increasing spatial needs.

Sally Melton is senior branch manager at Bairstow Eves.

She said: "The Burrows is a superb development in a very good central location.

"It's close to a wide variety of amenities including schools and shops, and comprises a good selection of different house types that has created a pleasing development that has proven in demand with the region's purchasers."

The final two properties are both four bedroom homes, a Launceston at plot 56 and a Cadeby at plot 67.

The Launceston is a modern and open plan townhouse offering living space spread over three floors.

The ground floor comprises a sitting room, open plan kitchen, diner and family area as well as a cloakroom.

The first floor comprises three bedrooms, one with en-suite, plus the main family bathroom while the second floor completes with a large master bedroom and en suite. This property is priced at £179,995.

The Cadeby has the same layout as the Launceston but is detached. This plot is priced at £189,995.

Sally added: "Both homes are very spacious and well designed and make ideal family homes.

"They each offer good value for money in comparison to similar properties on the market and purchasers of these properties can rest assured as David Wilson has a long and established reputation for building homes of the highest quality."

Jackie Day, sales director at David Wilson, said: "We're pleased to be working with Bairstow Eves once again on our The Burrows development. We have a long standing relationship with Sally and the team and I'm confident they are the right company to be working with us marketing these final homes."

To find out more about the two remaining properties call Sally at Bairstow Eves on 01933 275075.

Alternatively please call David Wilson's sales hotline on 0845 302 4047 or log onto the website at www.dwh.co.uk

Vauxhall favourite gets a new look

BRITAIN'S best-selling UK-built car is re-born and revitalised and due to hit showrooms this December.

Vauxhall's all-new Astra is poised to raise the bar for compact cars sold in the UK, with a combination of stylish design, class-leading dynamics, ultra-efficient powertrains and upscale quality.

The new Astra will uphold Vauxhall's tradition of offering buyers levels of innovation and technology normally found in a class above but at a price point embedded in the value sector.

New Astra prices start at £15,675 for the comprehensively equipped 1.4-litre, 87PS Exclusiv model and extend to £23,695 for the luxurious 2.0CDTi 160PS Elite automatic. With a range of eight engines and five trim levels, the new Astra will initially be available as a five-door hatchback only.

"As with the Insignia, the Astra is an all-new car, continuing the transformation of the Vauxhall product range which started five years ago with the launch of the Mk 5 model," said Andy Gilson, Vauxhall's marketing director. "Also like the Insignia, the Astra aims to attract a new group of buyers, those who may never have considered a Vauxhall before, but now see cars like the new Astra as offering all the style and quality of a premium product but at a far more affordable price point."

Enjoy the highlife with the highstyle

EDITION highstyle is the latest addition to the iconic Smart fortwo range.

Finished in chocolate brown metallic and boasting a sumptuous, well-equipped interior, the edition highstyle takes the smart's distinctive look to a new level.

Available solely as a coupe and building on the range-topping specification, only 215 of the edition highstyle will be available in the UK 180 featuring the 71bhp engine and 33 coming with a turbocharged 84bhp unit.

Complementing the striking exterior finish are 12-spoke, 15ins alloy wheels, a silver tridion safety cell and unique, aluminium-look 'highstyle' logos.

The fashionable theme continues inside.

The interior benefits from heated, leather metallic silver seats together with leather optic door inserts and upper and lower dashboards.

Eyecatching matt-silver details add a stylish touch and the edition highstyle's driver enjoys a leather three-spoke steering wheel with gearshift buttons and leather-trimmed gearknob at their fingertips. The standard integrated audio and navigation system from Pioneer will be music to the ears and as well as offering Bluetooth, iPod and USB connectivity, the entertainment system also features full satellite navigation.

Perfectly complementing the advanced head unit is the smart sound system, providing crisp sound reproduction thanks to its two tweeters, two mid-range speakers, subwoofer and smart MP3 interface.

The smart fortwo edition highstyle costs from £10,900.

CUSTOMER SERVICE & SATISFACTION ARE OUR NUMBER 1 PRIORITIES, AND WE THINK WE ARE THE BEST IN THE BUSINESS.

I write on behalf of my wife and myself, with regards to the purchase of a Ford Fusion from your establishment on 2nd September 2009. We were drawn to your garage by the advert in the Citizen newspaper and met your Sales Executive, Stephen Farr, on Sunday 20th August. We had visited a couple of other garages and frankly had not been impressed with them or their staff.

Stephen is completely different; he quickly helped find a vehicle that matched our needs; gave us time to sit in and view the vehicle; helped us to understand the benefits of buying from yourselves; explained the comprehensive warranty that you offer (being the balance of Fords on 3 year lease (and other) warranty, with no quibble support and repair from Saxon Bridge for items not covered in our first year of ownership); advised us that as well as the Free MOT & Life you would soon be able to offer full servicing facilities too; and generally helped us through this purchase, even to the extent of taking 2 vehicles in part-exchange so that we could afford the vehicle!

We wanted to express our thanks to Stephen, and to commend him to you. We have every confidence in this purchase and left feeling that we have received a great car, in a good deal and from a very honest company that showed great integrity. This was a refreshing experience.

This is a genuine letter from one of our many satisfied customers.

Gilligan delivers perfect spot prize for Sampson

FOOTBALL

RYAN Gilligan's added time penalty got Ian Sampson's permanent reign as Northampton Town manager off to a winning start as the Cobblers battled back from behind in Tuesday night's Johnstone's Paint Trophy tie.

The 2-1 win over AFC Bournemouth follows on from Saturday's 2-2 draw with Bradford City, which saw Northampton snatch a point at the death.

But while it was a night to remember for the hosts it was one to forget for Bournemouth's Lee Bradbury. He had a penalty saved by Chris Dunn with two minutes to go, before conceding the spot kick that sealed Town's progress.

They now await Saturday's draw for the Southern Section quarter finals and Sampson was delighted with the character shown by an inexperienced side that featured four changes.

"It wasn't the greatest of games but results are the most important thing and I'm delighted that the players showed good spirit again to come back into the game," he said.

A lacklustre first half showing saw Northampton fall behind on 32 minutes thanks to a goal from Danny Hollands, but in the second half Steve Guinan headed them level.

With time ticking away Dunn saved Bradbury's penalty, before the Cherries striker bundled over Courtney Herbert in the box and Gilligan stepped up to put the Cobblers through.

Sampson said: "I pointed out the obvious which was try to pass to our players rather than the opposition. That was the main problem in the first half, but we did better in the second half.

"They got stronger towards the end of the game, fitness levels are good, so that was pleasing.

Gilligan and Dunn were both praised by the new manager after the match. He said:

"Ryan has probably been one of our better players this season so far.

"He was not up to his usual standard in the first half but he got better as the game went on and showed he was brave enough to go and take the penalty at the end, so fair play to Ryan for that.

"We don't mind having Chris in goal when he's facing penalties. He's a big frame and he fills the goal well. He produced another good save tonight and his hands were good in general terms."

Both sides were forced into making changes for the match due to injury, but Sampson is hopeful that several of his players will be off the treatment table in time for Saturday's trip to Bury.

Luke Guttridge, John Curtis, Adebayo Akinfenwa, Andy Holt and Dean Beckwith were all missing, while Herbert was a doubt before making an appearance off the bench.

Liam Davis was expected to return to light training this week as he continues his recovery from a broken metatarsal.

UCL ROUND-UP

FA VASE FIRST ROUND PROPER

NORTHAMPTON Spencer's run in the Vase is over for another season after they were beaten 3-0 at home to Wroxham on Saturday.

Owen Paynter put the visitors into a second minute lead, with Matt Daniels adding a second on 20 minutes.

Wroxham then made sure of their place in round two thanks to Paynter's second of the match just after the hour mark.

LEAGUE CUP ROUND ONE

COGENHOE United set up a second round home tie with Blackstones as they eased to a 3-0 win over Holbeach United at Compton Park.

Alfie Taylor got the scoring underway after 23 minutes as they held a one goal lead heading into half time.

Five minutes after the restart, Wes Emery got his first senior goal and the scoring for the Cooks was wrapped up by Dan Thomason.

DIVISION ONE

JACK Bartley was the super sub for Sibley Rangers, coming off the bench to snatch a late equaliser in the 2-2 draw at Potton United.

A 16th minute goal from Lewis Healiss gave the hosts a half time lead, before the prolific Nick Worley levelled things for Sibley on 70 minutes.

Potton went back in front thanks to Simon Desborough's strike but three minutes into extra time, Bartley grabbed a share of the points.

ON Chenecks suffered a 1-0 defeat at Huntingdon Town. A ninth minute strike from James Edwards proved to be the difference.

HILLIER SENIOR CUP ROUND ONE

STEVE Diggin helped end former club Cogenhoe United's Senior Cup campaign in the first round, scoring twice as they went down 3-1 to Corby Town.

Ben Baines put the Cooks ahead after 34 minutes at Compton Park, but Brett Solkhon drew the Conference North side level just after half time.

Strikes from Diggin on 62 and 85 minutes then saw the Steelmen safely into the second round.

Northampton Spencer also exited to higher level opposition, going down 4-2 at home to Kettering Town courtesy of a first half goal.

Patrick Noubissie gave the Poppies a ninth minute lead with Dan Surridge levelling for Spencer two minutes later.

Kettering then hit three unanswered goals before the break from James Jennings, Dave Barrick and Damon Spencer. Ian Roper's own goal on 75 minutes was the only goal of the second half.

FORMULA 1

ADRIAN Sutil made no attempt to hide his disappointment after finishing 13th in Sunday's Japanese Grand Prix at Suzuka.

The Force India driver's misery began when he qualified fourth but suffered a five place deduction, along with Jenson Button, Rubens Barrichello and Fernando Alonso, for failing to slow for a yellow flag during the session.

A collision with McLaren's Heikki Kovalainen while running tenth during the race then dropped the German further

COLLISION: Adrian Sutil of Force India F1 battles with Heikki Kovalainen in the McLaren Sutil in 14th. Dr Vijay Mallya, owner of the Silverstone-based team, said: "We had expected a better result from this race, particularly given Adrian's excellent performance in qualifying fourth.

"Adrian's race was compromised when he tried to get past the McLaren but he demonstrated that the car is performing very well in race conditions and we are able to race competitively with the top teams."

down the field. "It was a really disappointing race," admitted Sutil afterwards, adding: "The start was OK and I could keep my position but then I fell back to ninth and was caught behind Kovalainen.

"I got past him at the chicane but then he cut back across and I spun and lost a lot of time. That was really the end of the race for me.

Team-mate Tonio Liuzzi failed to make the second qualifying session due to a broken gearbox, but finished just behind

TOURING CARS

PAUL O'Neill is delighted with how the British Touring Car Championship (BTCC) campaign has gone after the final rounds at the Brands Hatch Grand Prix circuit on Sunday.

O'Neill ended the season with two top ten finishes at the Kent circuit, which was enough to secure 12th in the drivers standings and seventh for Team Sunshine.co.uk in the team championship.

He praised boss Marvin Humphries and the rest of the Tech Speed team, saying: "It's amazing what the team have done. People see what they have done on the track but don't realise the heartache and money that has gone into it.

"We went to Brands thinking that whatever happens, happens. We went there to enjoy it. We were quick out of the box in practice with disastrously old tyres. We were only half a second off the top times and thought we had a shot at pole."

A ninth in his 100th BTCC start was followed by a seventh in race two. That saw the Northampton-based driver second on the grid for race three following the reversal from eighth downwards.

But any chance of ending the season with a podium was scuppered when he was forced to retire the Integra due to a snapped cam chain.

"I slipped the clutch at the start and burnt the clutch out," he admitted, adding: "Then the gears wouldn't change because the clutch was so hot. The cam chain snapped and then the engine cut out so we had to retire."

Nevertheless, the team enjoyed what they feel was their best moment of the season in the second race as O'Neill battled with Vauxhall's Matt Neal before nudging him onto the grass.

The 29-year-old said: "That was a year of bullying ended right there. That was the highlight of the season for the team as they were fed up with seeing red and white paint from Matt's car down the side of mine."

And he is hopeful of returning with the Leamington Spa-based outfit next year, saying: "The only thing I'm looking at is driving for Tech Speed next year."

"I've spoken to some of the higher up teams but if it's the same package as where I am at the minute I'm not interested. There's no pressure driving here.

"I can get a lot of top ten finishes here and they told me that as long as I'm driving the car for them, then they're happy."

Northamptonshire will again host two races in the 2010 BTCC after the calendar was revealed yesterday. The series visits Rockingham on April 25 and Silverstone on August 22.

NETBALL

NORTHAMPTON-based G&T's netball club are looking to expand as the new winter season gets underway.

Founded in 2004, the team has made great strides in the past 12 months, including securing a sponsorship deal with Docsolution and running their own tournament for the first time.

This was held in June last year, with six teams from around the county taking part.

A further tournament held in July this year saw the number increase to eight.

G&T's are active throughout the year, with the club finishing third in the 2008/09 Daventry League and playing in the Wellingborough League over the summer.

The club have also provided a start for prospective match officials, running a C Award Umpire training course. They currently have four qualified umpires in their ranks.

Training is on Monday nights at Moulton College, starting at 8.30pm. Anyone interested in joining the team should visit the website www.gandtnetballclub.btik.com or email gtnetball@hotmail.co.uk.

'Invincibles' finally beaten

RUGBY ROUND-UP

MIDLANDS ONE EAST OLD NORTHAMPTONIANS 12 PAVIORS 22

ONs were dealt their first defeat since April 2008 as Pavors stopped their incredible 33-game unbeaten run at Billing Road.

The home side took an early lead when Mike Hull was driven over for an unconverted try, but the visitors did likewise and added the extras to lead 7-5 at the break.

But in the second half, Pavors stepped it up a gear. Firstly their fly half, Dan Graney converted his own score and then kicked the away side further ahead with a penalty.

Hull's second try and a Sam Street conversion drew ONs to within seven points but despite late pressure they were unable to fight back and get anything from the match.

The defeat drops ONs down to third in the table, two points behind unbeaten sides Syston and Scunthorpe.

MIDLANDS TWO EAST (SOUTH) LEICESTER FOREST 5 TOWCESTRIANS 39

TOWS showed their full attacking potential and dominated up front to run out comfortable winners at Leicester Forest.

Austin Wheldon sneaked in unopposed from the back of a maul to put Tows into the lead before a devastating drive in the scrum, released Liam Wilkinson, who forced his way over under the posts for the second try.

Matt Yuill added the conversion, and then slotted a neat penalty to take Tows into a 15-0 half time lead.

In the second half, the Tows forwards continued to have a stranglehold on the game and it was Richard Tustian who popped up with the ball in hand from a driving maul to score Tows' next try.

Yeates converted, Tows again forced Forest back into deep defence and near their own goal line it was Wheldon again who found an excellent running angle to dot down for his second try.

Forest struck back with a length of the field try, but a converted try from Wilkinson and a Yeates penalty killed off any chance of an improbable comeback.

FAMILY AFFAIR: Northampton Heathens contest the line out with Old Northamptonians 3rd XV during Saturday afternoon's close encounter

NORTHAMPTON BBOB 39 NORTHAMPTON OLD SCOUTS 18

MIDLANDS THREE EAST (SOUTH) BUGBROOKE 42 BEDFORD SWIFTS 10

BUGBROOKE remained unbeaten in the league with a seven try win over Swifts that saw them go one point clear in first place.

Strong running at angles with quick support and fast recycled ball gave Bugbrooke the edge over the slower Bedford side.

Linked with strong defence and hard tackling, Bedford were never out of contention but found themselves chasing shadows and running in walls.

Ollie Whiteside ran in two tries, while there were also scores from captain John Holding, Adam Pepper, Ben Atkins, Tom Wood and even veteran centre Terry Painter, adding his experience to the youthful side.

Further points from the boots of fly half Kie Fewster with a penalty and two Zac Miller conversions lifted Bugbrooke top of the league position.

NORTHAMPTON CASUALS 15 NORTHAMPTON MENS OWN 20

MENS Own survived a second half fightback from Casuals and held on to defeat their town rivals.

Matt Sexon put the visitors into an early lead from an unconverted try and soon after Will Allexander had added a second to put them ten points ahead.

A converted try from Casuals reduced the lead to three points, but Mark Newton's penalty made it 13-7 at the half time interval.

Nigel Jones try and conversion from Mark James took the away side 13 points clear.

However, a try and penalty from Casuals ensured they had to battle for the victory.

MIDLANDS MERIT DIRECTORS LEAGUE NORTHAMPTON HEATHENS 18 OLD NORTHAMPTONIANS 3RD 12

THE Heathens had a distinctly family feel, with three sets of brothers led by the Hughes, with centres Scott and Craig, flanker Adam and half brother Tom Williams on the wing.

These were supplemented by prop and skipper Andy Evans who was backed up by Number eight Pete and second row Mark.

The family roll call was completed by winger Wes Schoeman and replacement back Jonny Schoeman.

It was Tom Williams who put Heathens into an early lead and in a half of solid defence, the only other score came from Damian McColgan's penalty.

Heathens led 8-0 at half time and McColgan kicked a second penalty to extend the advantage. But two tries from ONs, one of which was converted, saw them take a one point lead.

However, the home side were not finished yet and a try from Richie Robinson, converted by Jonny Schoeman, secured victory.

Monty flies South for the winter as White leaves club

MONTY Panesar will be spending the winter playing in South Africa after joining the Highveld Lions as their overseas player.

Panesar is hoping to win back his place in the England side after being dropped this year and enduring a difficult season with Northants.

The squad for England's winter tour to South Africa has not yet been announced, but the left arm spinner would be in a perfect position to be called up should injury befall Graeme Swann or Adil Rashid, who are expected to be selected.

He is not the only Northants player to be involved in the South African domestic series, with Andrew Hall, Johan van der Wath all playing in their homeland this winter.

Hall has already featured for the Titans, scoring 48 and taking 1-21 as they drew their SuperSport Series opener with the Dolphins.

The all-rounder could be up against Boje this week when his side host the Warriors at Benoni, while van der Wath's Eagles side do not play until their MTN Championship one-day game against the Lions on October 30.

One player who will not be returning to the County Ground for 2010 is Graeme White after the young spinner opted to join Nottinghamshire.

White, 22, made his first class debut for Northants against Derbyshire in 2006 and going on to play eight times. He also made eight one day appearances, taking ten wickets at an average of 24.60.

Head coach David Capel was sad to see White go, saying: "It is disappointing that he feels he has to leave us to further his career. Graeme featured prominently in our plans for the future, which he was well aware of."

"However, Nottinghamshire have offered him similar playing opportunities and he feels he must take that opportunity."

"We are proud of the way he has come through our system. We would like to wish him all the very best with Nottinghamshire and with his future career."

The left-arter is the third Northants spinner to make the move to Trent Bridge in recent years, with both Swann and Jason Brown on the staff at Notts.

BASKETBALL

JUNIOR MEN'S PREMIER DIVISION NORTH SHEFFIELD SHARKS 90 NORTHANTS MOULTON 67

COACH John Collins praised the character of his new look Northants Moulton side after they suffered a 23 point defeat in their opening match of the season.

Sheffield led 37-15 by the end of the first quarter and despite winning the second and drawing the fourth, it proved too much of a mountain for Northants to climb.

Collins said: "We are a very young team with players from a number of different programmes. It will take us time to gel and I am still assessing many of the players and what they can bring to the party."

"One thing I liked was the way the players stuck to their task after they had fallen 21 points behind."

JUNIOR MEN'S MIDLANDS CONFERENCE NOTTS NOVA 87 NORTHANTS THUNDER 77

A DEPLETED Thunder side were 22 points down inside the first two quarters of the match but by the end had recovered to give the scoreline a slightly more respectable look.

Coach Rob Eddon had a selection nightmare, with several key players recently quitting the team, but good free throw shooting from Fraser Campbell ensured they were always in with a chance.

The county boys actually won the third quarter by 11 points and sensed an unlikely victory. However, Notts would not be denied and they secured the win by ten points.

Campbell top scored with 21 points for Thunder, while four other players also reached double figures.

GOLF

NORTHAMPTON duo Carl Sainsbury and Nick Soto teed off early yesterday morning to get their challenge for the SkyCaddie PGA Four-ball Championship underway.

Sainsbury, of Brampton Heath, and Northants County's Soto booked their place at Lincolnshire's Forest Pines course by finishing fourth in the qualifiers at Stapleford Park in August.

The pair shot a seven-under-par 66, along with three other pairs, to seal their spot in the tournament which carries a prize fund of £30,000.

A cheque for £5,000 is up for grabs for the winners of the 54-hole event, which is set to reach its climax on Friday.

Sainsbury and Soto were paired with Robert Arnott (Bishopbriggs Golf Range) and Mark King (Kingsfield) in the first round. Their opponents finished fourth in the Scottish qualifiers.

Also representing Northants County is Edmund Chapman. He teams up with Trentham's Shane Owen as they take on Craig Sutherland (Cherry Lodge) and Matt Deal (Hendon).

Chapman and Owen also qualified for the 30 pair event by coming through the Midlands qualifiers with a round of 66.

Mallinder: 'Bring on the big guns'

RUGBY UNION

JIM Mallinder believes last season's European exploits have given Northampton Saints the confidence to compete with the big guns ahead of Saturday night's Heineken Cup opener with Munster.

The 15-3 win over Bourgoin in the European Challenge Cup final sealed their place back amongst the continent's elite clubs for the first time in three years.

Now they square off with two-time winners Munster at Franklin's Gardens this weekend and are joined in Pool One by French giants Perpignan and Italian champions Treviso – a prospect that Mallinder is relishing.

"To finish eighth in the league in our first season back was satisfactory and to win the European Challenge Cup was very encouraging," said the director of rugby.

"That finished off a good season for us but now we've got to move on and we've got to improve. It's going to be tough and it's going to be competitive but we're looking forward to the challenge.

"I think the confidence in the squad has always been there but what the Challenge Cup has done is show us that we can compete with some of the big teams. We proved that we can play away from home in the Challenge Cup, winning all our games in France.

"You'd never pick to play Perpignan, Munster and Benetton Treviso but we've got that and, actually, it's a brilliant draw for us because it will see how far we've come.

"Northampton is a big club and needs to be playing and competing on that big stage."

It is just over a decade since the boot of Paul Grayson helped Saints edge out the Magners League side 9-8 in the final of the competition, and is perhaps fitting they clash in their first fixture of this year's tournament.

Along with bringing memories flooding back of that day at Twickenham for both sets of fans, the game marks a milestone for Northampton as they will become the 16th team to play 50 matches in the Heineken Cup.

The 'sold out' signs were put up at the Gardens over a month in advance of this game which sees the Saints take on the team ranked as the number one club side in Europe.

Northampton's Irish number eight Roger Wilson (pictured) is looking forward to locking horns with his fellow countrymen and is hoping it will provide a boost to his international chances.

He said: "I was hoping to get one of the Irish provinces and I didn't really mind which one as it's just nice to play against either old team-mates or players you played against at age level or have been competing with to try to get in the national set up.

"Whenever you play against Munster, they've got a whole pile of internationals in the squad, so you know the Irish selectors are going to be there and I still haven't ruled out getting another couple of caps for Ireland."

Few sides can match the history and myth surrounding Munster. They were the first Irish side to win the Heineken Cup twice and to this day remain the only team from the Emerald Isle to beat the All Blacks.

Their squad reads like a who's-who of Ireland internationals, including Heineken Cup record points scorer Ronan O'Gara and this summer's British and Irish Lions captain Paul O'Connell.

But they were overshadowed last season by bitter provincial rivals Leinster, who knocked them out in the semis before going on to lift the Heineken Cup.

Munster were also shut out by the same opponents in last week's 30-0 drubbing in the Magners League. The match also saw Ireland's most capped player, John Haynes, sent off for stamping. The prop will now serve a six week ban.

Sampson's joy at landing Cobblers job

FOOTBALL

IAN Sampson spoke of his pride after being confirmed as the full-time manager of Northampton Town on Monday.

It was widely expected that the former Cobblers centre half would be confirmed as Stuart Gray's replacement, and he will stay until at least the end of the season.

Sampson first moved to Northampton from Sunderland on loan in 1993, signing permanently the following year. He went on to make 449 appearances for the club and joined the coaching staff on his retirement.

It was a natural progression for the 40-year-old, having held positions as youth team coach, reserve team coach and assistant manager at Sixfields.

"I'm very proud, I've been here for 15 or 16 years now," said Sampson after Tuesday's win over Bournemouth, adding: "When I took over the youth team I saw it as a long term progression for me. I think I've been good value for the £30,000 they spent on me."

"I took a big pay cut from being a player to a coach but it was a long-term decision, and at the moment it's proved to be the right one."

When Sampson first joined the Cobblers they still played at the County Ground, and is pleased with how things have moved on since then.

He said: "The club is in a much more healthier state than it was then. We were in that ramshackle old ground sharing with the cricket. The club has improved ten fold. It's well run, it's got a good chairman, good staff and good set of fans."
